WELCOME!

That special feeling begins the moment you enter beautiful open Miami County. In direct contrast to surrounding urban congestion, the region is still green, still fresh with endless acres of forest and fields of rich nurturing soil. No surprise, then, that our county's heritage is rooted in agriculture. In Miami County, farming families have been growing the food that sustains Americans for decades.

But Miami County's homegrown connections go much deeper. We value lack of congestion, quiet streets and award winning, historic communities. A cordial area always welcoming of visitors, we offer an uncommon blend of unique attractions scattered throughout this scenic region.

In Miami County, the fun is a little fresher, a little more one-of-a-kind. That's because our adventures are grown right here at home. Our three award winning historic downtowns have been perfectly preserved and are a magnet for both visitors and residents seeking a little charm, a lot of fun and maybe that special shopping discovery. And mere minutes from our downtown streets, is the Great Miami River, where a bike-way winds along the shore so that you may enjoy biking, kayaking, bird watching and running.

Families, couples, girlfriends and tour groups... people everywhere are drawn to Miami County. Not just good... Home. Grown. Great.

Hours: Tuesday - Saturday 9 am - 5 pm;
Monday - Thursday 7 pm - 9 pm;
Sunday 1 pm - 5 pm

This gorgeous, Norman Romanesque Revival styled mansion was built in 1914 by Mary Jane Hayner, whose husband owned the Hayner Distillery Company. Sitting adjacent to the county courthouse, it is the arts and cultural center of the community. Most Americans would call it "Tudor," noting its wood and stucco exterior, leaded glass windows, marble fire places, carved wood trim and elegant ballroom. The building itself is truly a work of art. A converted gallery space offers exhibitions year round.

ATTRACTIONS: POINTS of INTEREST

Our homegrown values mean we take care to preserve the things that matter including our welcoming historic downtowns that feature breathtaking architecture. We celebrate these rock-solid communities and their Home. Grown. Legacies.

PIQUA was named by the Shawnee Indians. While seated around a fire following an annual fest, the tribe witnessed a great puffing in the ashes. Suddenly a full formed man sprang up from the remains of the fire and the tribe exclaimed "Otaht-he-wagh-Pe-Qua", meaning "He has come out of the ashes." In recognition of Piqua's outstanding 19th and 20th Century architectural treasures, a 23 block section of the downtown area was entered into the National Register of Historic Places as the "Piqua-Caldwell Historic District." Various walking tours are available through MainStreet Piqua. Piqua's downtown district recently experienced a revitalization, which was so successful that it won "The 2003 Governor's Award for Excellence". Piqua is the only community in Ohio to receive this honored distinction.

TIPP CITY was originally named Tippecanoe in honor of William Henry Harrison, whose campaign slogan was "Tippecanoe & Tyler Too." John Clark developed Tippecanoe in 1840 and purposely situated the town to take advantage of the traffic on the Miami Erie Canal. In evidence of this, Tipp Roller Mill is situated at Lock #15 on the canal. The charming downtown district has over 90 buildings listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Located in the center of Miami County, you'll find TROY, whose architectural highlights include "The Square" which is a traffic circle in the middle of town, beautifully landscaped with a fountain. This Public Square was laid out in 1807 by Andrew Wallace and features Victorian-age buildings, many of which are on the National Register. Troy will be celebrating it's Bicentennial in 2014.

ELDEAN COVERED BRIDGE

Corner of North County Road 25-A & Eldean Road, Troy • Open Year Round
Set amongst the backdrop of Miami County's vast farmland and the tree-lined corridor of the Great Miami River. Built in 1860, it's one of only two covered bridges remaining in the county and is the longest "Long Truss" covered bridge in the nation. Today, visitors can still cross through the protected barriers of this historic landmark, both on foot and by car. Either way, the design and craftsmanship will no doubt take you back to another time in Miami County's early history.

FLETCHER COVERED BRIDGE

Built in 1993 by 29 local volunteer workers on the location of the former Gustin Ditch bridge. Dedicated in 1998, the covered bridge is a new look at an old style of bridge design. Located next to the quiet community of Fletcher, visitors can get a taste of the simple life while visiting this historic re-creation.

FORT PIQUA PLAZA

*116 W. High Street, Downtown Piqua
937-773-6753 (Piqua Library)*
The Fort Piqua Plaza is a fully rehabilitated historic facility that serves as the heart of activity in Piqua and all of Miami County. First completed in 1891, this elaborately constructed Richardsonian Romanesque style facility houses the Piqua Public Library, an art gallery, coffee shop, state of the art meeting rooms, a spectacular elegant ballroom and a local favorite eatery. Located inside, the Library has a large collection of unique materials on Piqua and Northern Miami County. The reading room contains over 6,000 volumes and in excess of 150,000 photographs and documents. A professional full-time staff is available to assist you with any research and genealogical requests.

MIAMI COUNTY COURTHOUSE

*215 W. Main Street, Troy • 937-440-5900
Open: Monday - Friday 8 am - 4 pm*
Combining beautiful Greek and Roman architecture with five cast iron domes, Ohio native J.W. Yost may have designed his masterpiece when invited to Miami County in 1885. Completed in 1888, the courthouse stands as one of the tallest structures in the county, towering 185 feet above the Great Miami River.

The tip of the building is fitted with a copper statue of justice with bronze statues in attendance. Inside, the dome is guarded by a number of colorful visages representing cultures from around the world. Frescoed plaster ceilings, arches ornamented with representations of local agricultural produce, marble wainscoting, mosaic tile, and brilliant wood work also make the inside of this structure an architectural treasure.

ATTRACTIONS: RECREATION

Just outside the boundaries of our busy lives a peaceful forest is brimming with abundant wildlife. Nature delights the soul and calms the mind. Get out there!

HOOF IT!

Over 30 miles of nature trails covering 2100 acres, Charleston Falls Nature Preserve contains a magnificent 37' waterfall and a limestone cave. Greenville Falls State Scenic River Area boasts 20' cascades through a glacially cut gorge. And Stillwater Prairie Reserve, the most diverse habitat in the area features wetlands, meadows, river frontage, rolling hills and woodlands – all united by one path. Many trails are suitable for cross county skiing in season.

BIKE IT ...

... or hike it, roller blade it, run it. Do it any way you like! Railroads and canals carved the route of Linear Park in Piqua while the Great Miami River dictates the 41 mile, three-county route of the Great Miami River Recreational Trail.

PADDLE IT!

The Stillwater River and Greenville Creek State Scenic and Recreational Rivers flow with a gentle grade through glaciated soils to join the Great Miami River, perfect for canoeing and kayaking. The Miami County Park District, Piqua City Parks and West Milton Parks maintain boat launches. The Miami County Park District has canoeing and kayaking in the following parks: F.L. Blankenship Riverside Sanctuary, Goode Prairie Reserve, Great Miami River Recreational Trail, Honey Creek Preserve, Stillwater Prairie Reserve, Farrington Reserve, Maple Ridge Reserve & Twin Arch Reserve.

FISH IT!

The Stillwater River offers some of Ohio's most prolific small mouth bass fishing and more than 35 other fish species. A license is required to fish in the rivers. No permit is required to fish in the ponds at the following Miami County Park District parks: Garbry Big Woods Reserve, Stillwater Prairie Reserve, Maple Ridge Reserve & Twin Arch Reserve.

Community Park
West U.S. Route 36, Covington
937-473-5439 • www.FortRowdy.org
The weekend begins with an old-fashioned hometown parade on Saturday, but the highlight of this festival is the mountain man encampment located next to the Stillwater River. Frontier enthusiasts gather in groups to play guitars, drums and washboards by campfire light, much like people of the small trading villages of the 1800s. Named in honor of General "Mad Anthony" Wayne, who founded the land that would one day become Covington, this is a celebration of the rough roots of western Miami County and the Stillwater region.

BRADFORD PUMPKIN SHOW

October, 7 - 11, 2014
Downtown Bradford • 937-448-2710
www.BradfordPumpkinShow.org
Each October the streets of this quaint community literally become the back-drop for one of the most popular (and messy) festivals in Ohio! Visitors to the 5-day event are known for hurling 10 tons of confetti onto the streets – and at each other! The midway features games, rides, crafts, concessions and merchandise. Enjoy one of the many parades that take place throughout the week, while indulging your taste buds with pumpkin ice cream, corn-on-the-cob, and many other tasty treats.

FALL FARM FEST

Second Weekend in October: Sat & Sun
Lost Creek Reserve
2385 E. St. Rt. 41, Troy
937-335-6273 • www.MiamiCountyParks.com
The historic Knoop Homestead at Lost Creek Reserve transforms into a hub of activity for thousands of people who attend the two day festival celebrating Miami County's agricultural heritage. Activities include a six acre corn maze, corn cannon, live music, food, hayrides, a scarecrow contest, children's activities, demonstrations, vendors, display booths, farm animals, Kiddie Tractor Pulls, a pumpkin patch and more. (Charges apply to activities.)

A WINTER'S YULETIDE GATHERING

First Weekend in November
Downtown Tipp City
937-506-8405
